

JEAN ROSSIGNOL

January 17, 1954 - November 1, 2007

Jean L. (Falconeri) Rossignol, 53 of New Britain, the beloved wife of Raymond Rossignol, died at her home on Thursday November 1, 2007 surrounded by her loving family, after a very courageous battle with cancer. She was born on January 17, 1954 in New Britain to Joseph and Yvette Falconeri of Newington. Jean lived in Berlin and New Britain most of her life and graduated from New Britain High School in 1972. Jean was very artistic and a gifted individual who loved photography, gardening, floral arranging and creating and sewing costumes for the many theatrical performers in her immediate family. She loved life and lived it with zest and lots of humor. She was employed by Kohl's Department Store in Plainville and had a very special bond with her co-workers and supervisors, with whom she shared many laughs and very good times. Jean had a smile that could light up even the most darkest room, and instantly put people at ease with her endearing ways and kind and warm heart. Besides her husband and parents Jean is survived by her wonderful children , Raymond J. Rossignol and his wife Rebecca and Tiffany Aust and her husband Doug, her cherished grandchildren, Rudy and Lydia Aust, Ezekiel Rossignol and a new grandbaby who is due to be born in a few weeks to her daughter Tiffany. She is also survived by her siblings, Michael Falconeri and his wife Dolores, Rena Redfield and her husband Ron Schleicher, Lynn Aguero and her husband Efrain, Christine Vendetta and her partner Steven Biske and many very dear and loved nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and very special friends. She will be greatly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing her. Funeral services will take place on Saturday from the Venskunas Funeral Home 670 Stanley St at 8:30am until the time of the Mass of Christian Burial which will take place at 11:00am at St John The Evangelist Church in New Britain. Jean had always described herself as a " very colorful character" . and therefore has requested that those attending her services to please dress in bright and happy colors. In lieu of flowers , the family has asked that donations be made in Jean's memory to the James S. Hoffman Gynecological Oncology Fund c/o The Hospital of Central Ct, 100 Grand St. New Britain, Conn. “ Dear Ray and Family, I heard about Jean's illness this summer from Paul at the campground. He said that she was being very brave and courageous. I told Paul that I would keep her in my prayers. Please know that Jean touched a lot of people with her spirit and sense of humor. I am deeply sorry for your loss, but please know that Jean is with God and no longer in pain. I know she will always be with you and your entire family in memories as well as spirit. Sincerely, Kim (Tharpe) DePasquale##imported-begin##Kim (Tharpe) DePasquale##imported-end##

“ My family and I send our deepest condolences on the passing of Jean. We met her through her good friend, Karen Sali - we are her daughter Denise's in-laws.

My husband, Jim also knew her family and they lived in the same neighborhood as children in the East End of New Britain.

Jean was a very special person who was easy to talk too and so much fun. We will miss her dearly.

Please know that you are all in our prayers in the days ahead. Just remember she is in God's hands and at peace.

God Bless.##imported-begin##Rose Wodecki##imported-end##
