May 20, 1922 - March 21, 2008

Josephine ( Zagadlo) Moskus entered into rest on Mar. 21, 2008. She was the daughter of the late Gregory and Elizabeth Zygadlo and she was the widow of Anthony Moskus. Josephine was born in Massachusetts and was a resident of New Britain. Josephine worked many jobs but worked at Northeast Utilities until her retirement. She was a member of St Andrews Church and the St Andrews Guild, The Holy Rosary Society and the Lithuanian Seniors of St Andrews. She enjoyed cooking and baked many items especially candy and soup at the parish functions. Josephine was always there with many kindnesses to so many people in her life. She enjoyed cooking and teaching her friends how to cook. She spent time at Ledgecrest Health Center in Newington and enjoyed the warm and loving friendship of the staff members. She always said " thank you" or you are a " very nice person, or nurse" no matter how uncomfortable. She could still joke and smile until her breath of life stopped. We will all miss Josephine, ( Joie) , friend, relative and a wonderful person. Josephine is survived by her two brothers Michael and Ferdinand Zygadlo and their children, nephews Edmund Cadrain and his wife Joan, Rev. John T. Moskus, James P. Moskus and his wife Alice, a niece Janet Kowalec and many other family members and their children. A very special person in her life who was like a daughter was Barbara Cyr and her husband Rick. Barbara was always there for Josephine no matter what. Josephine loved Barbara who helped and cared for her through sickness and very trying times. To the Family of Joie Moskus and to Barbara and Rick Cyr:

It is with great sadness that I read today in The Hartford Courant that Joie had passed away on Friday, March 21. I was on vacation this past week in Florida and was catching up on my newspapers today. My husband, Joe, and I feel so distressed that we could not attend the funeral and extend our condolences to you in person.

Joie and Whitie were my godparents. My parents could not have chosen more loving people to be my godparents. They were so special to me and my sister, Betty, when we were growing up, always remembering both of us equally and making us feel special. I remember going back to their apartment after their wedding for a little reception and Joie put her short veil on my head. They attended our wedding and we had them over to our first apartment for dinner on Maple Street. Losing Whitie so soon seemed so not fair because their love was so deep.

We did not talk often enough on the phone, but when we did, we always included discussions of our cats. Her Chickie seems like a very special cat.

My deepest condolences to all of you who took such good care of her. She told me she was surrounded by people who loved her.

To you who crafted the obituary for Joie, it was a beautiful tribute and captured her loving and giving spirit. At long last my godparents are together again.

Sincerely,
