“ For Tillie & family,
Those we know & love must leave ,but know they leave those behind with precious memories. Tillie was one of these. I worked with her at Chesterfields for about 5 years then moved to FI. I was surprised to note she graduated from MMSN-I was there also in 1959-1960. Further, I noted that Agatha is her sister & Agatha was in my class & I think on the same dorm floor. Agatha do you remember Patti Gesner & Joyce Romegelli? Tillie has been in my prayers knowing her fight with ca-Now she's healed the fight is over! My sympathy & love to all of this dear friend's family.-----

“ Dear Rev. Kvedas and family:
I was saddened to read of the passing of "Tillie." I was a Pediatric Nurse at Middlesex Memorial Hospital when Tillie worked there. I had a great respect for her and compassion that she demonstrated. I believe that she had a positive influence on staff to do everything possible for patients.
My best to Millie, also###imported-begin##Barbara Allen###imported-end##

“ Dear Father Kvedas, and Family,

Tillie and I were classmates fifty years ago at Middlesex. She was loved by everyone in our class and at the hospital. I admired her gentle way and the calm way she could access a situation. She was a fantastic "head nurse".

I am sorry I can not be with you at this time, but know Tillie is in my thoughts and prayers.

Millie, my deepest sympathy to you too. It has been such a difficult time for you both.
