

STARREY OMARI KING

January 25, 1990 - June 22, 2014

Starrey Omari King (Star) 24, was born to Charlene King on January 25, 1990 in Bronx, NY. Starrey and her family moved to New Britain, CT in 1990 where she attended New Britain High School and later Tunxis Community College; she was ascribing to become a Registered Nurse. Starrey was a vivacious, yet gentle and radiant young lady, who through her smile then her laughter, captivated the hearts of all who came in contact with her. She was passionate about living life. Starrey was born with Sickle Cell Disease, her life took a tragic turn when she fell ill in 2011 and struggled against all odds, overcoming many obstacles. Her race ended on June 22, 2014 at 1:15pm. She now sings " O death where is thy sting. O grave where is thy victory." Starrey's victory is in her Messiah whom is holding her now in His loving arms. Starrey is survived by her parents (mother) Charlene King;(step-fathers) David James and Leroy Brooks; her three sisters Kyrstal, Chenell and Inarrie. Her grandparents Morelle Warner and Cecil (Charlie) King; three aunts: Pastor Roslyn Crossdale, Derry (Kim) Petitfrere and Ebony King. Uncles: Lester and Larry King, Ian Crossdale, Pharrel Petitfrere; Cousins: JeVaughn Day, Stephanie and Chardynea Crossdale; Destiny Mason, Champayne Smith, Kimoni, Elijah and Pharrah Petitfrere. Her best friends: Shira Joseph, Shamika James, MaKayla Neal, Orland(Lando)& Osvaldo (Sport) Lopez; and God-mother Lisa Williams.

Funeral services will be held on July 5, 2014 at the Venskunas Funeral Home 670 Stanley St New Britain, Ct with calling hours from 10-12am followed by a

“ As sad as it was to hear of you physically leaving us, I couldn't help but to laugh & smile at the memories you leave me with. We had some great times and I'm so thankful for that. Imagining your big beautiful smile makes this easier to deal with. Sleep peacefully <3 “ Star, words can't express how I feel, but God has given me peace that you are no longer suffering. May you continue to dance and smile with the angels above because you were given a new body. I love you and miss you dearly.

*Love Always,
Rana*
