

Viola DeSeno

November 12, 1922 - February 17, 2006

Viola DeSeno a life long resident of New Britain entered into rest on Friday February 17, 2006 at St Marys Hospital in Waterbury. She was the beloved wife of her late husband Lucian DeSeno. She was the daughter of the late Michael Gaidimaukas and Petronella (Ragauskas) Gaidimaukas. Viola attended local schools and was a member of St John The Evangelist Church. She was predeceased by her beloved daughter Diane Engelhardt and her brother Rupert Gaidimaukas. Her son in law Chris Engelhardt is a patient at Hospital for Special Care in New Britain. She leaves her brother Al Gaidimaukas of Berlin, a sister in law Theresa Silas and her husband Al Silas of Southington, a brother in law Sal DeSeno and his wife Marion DeSeno of Florida along with several nieces, nephews and cousins. Viola was an avid bowler and she volunteered helping with elections and census taking and was an Avon Representative. She will be remembered for her lively, sassy personality and warm heart and for helping others when she could. Viola was devoted to her family and loved to bake and her home was always open to family and friends. Funeral services will take place on Wednesday at 8:15am from the Venskunas Funeral Home 670 Stanley St New Britain. There will be a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00am at St John The Evangelist Church. Burial will be in the family plot at St Mary's Cemetery. Callings hours will take place on Tuesday from 4-6pm. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to St John The Evangelist Church 655 East St New Britain, Ct 06051. To send online condolences please go to www.venskunasfuneralhome.com
